800th Anniversary

The University of Salamanca celebrated in 2018 the commemoration of its first eight centuries. It signifies years of work, preparation and achievement of concrete goals in a path directed towards the consolidation of prestige and promotion of the University of Salamanca to the world. The Spanish government, in accordance with the ministerial recommendation given on February 1st 2008, has considered the celebration of 800th Centenary of the University of Salamanca an event of both national and international importance, founded on the collaboration of the university and businesses of all sectors
