1 Introduction

WYRED (netWorked Youth Research for Empowerment in the Digital society) (García-Peñalvo, 2016; García-Peñalvo & Durán-Escudero, 2017; García-Peñalvo & Kearney, 2016) is a H2020 project that aims to provide a framework for research in which children and young people can express and explore their perspectives and interests in relation to digital society, but also a platform from which they can communicate their perspectives to other stakeholders effectively through innovative engagement processes.

This infographic summarizes the basic scheme of the a WYRED research cycle from the point of view of both Partners and Participants (Stakeholders), presenting the main comprised activities in each cycle stage.
